

Kamal Kisan

Simple Solutions for Smart Farmers

Job Summary

At Kamal Kisan we work towards making small farmers of India more profitable & productive through smart mechanization solutions. Kamal Kisan is established in 2013 and is supported by IIT Madras TATA Trust & Villgro innovation foundation. With several successful commercial products and International awards for innovation in agriculture from the Bayer foundation & Syngenta foundation we are looking forward becoming the leaders in how innovative and quality products that can bring a huge change to the farmers in India.

To fulfil our mission, we need ensure that we are able to deliver good quality products to famers at the right time. In order to be a lean and good quality manufacturer of inputs we are looking to get quality certification

As Quality Engineer you job will be to ensure that all our products are able to meet good quality standard and will have good durability, finishing and fitment

Responsibilities and Duties

- Make Inspection reports
- Visit vendor location to check the job done
- Monitor pre-delivery assembly and packed in proper condition
- Implement good quality practices for the team

Required Experience, Skills and Qualifications

- Diploma/BE in Mechanical Engineering
- Minimum 2 years' experience in quality department
- Able to reach drawing and use basic measuring instruments

Benefits

- Location in Bangalore
- Travel to vendor location or customer location will be provided by company
- QC tools, 5S, CAPA and other important tools training will be provided
- Good position to lead the quality initiative to help the farmers of India.

Specifics:

- Salary – 15K per month
- Location – Bangalore
- Report to – Production Manager

To apply mail your cover letter & CV to devi@kamalkisan.com